

I agree with the FISTS petition except for the part about the 12 WPM increase.

Morse Code is often the only mode viable in an emergency, and I feel, especially in the current climate, that this skill should not be lost.